

Seeking God Together:
A Rule of Life for the Amersham Deanery

1. The Vision: Imagine someone visited Amersham Deanery in five years' time. How would they know that we are truly "Seeking God Together"?

- What would they observe?
- What would feel different?
- What stories would they hear?

2. The Obstacles: What currently prevents us from becoming that kind of deanery?

3. The Next Step: What is one practical step we could take in the next year to move towards that vision?
